About Kristen

Kristen Smith is a medium and teacher who helps people understand what mediumship is and how it works. She holds master's degrees in Maharishi Ayurveda and Instructional Design, a bachelor's degree in Education, and is a certified yoga teacher and Transcendental Meditation (TM) meditator. Her work rests on a foundation of consciousness: the understanding that we are all connected within one universal field of consciousness. From that field she connects and receives messages, and she teaches others to feel that connection for themselves, whether they are mediumship apprentices or simply want to connect for themselves.

About Group Mediumship Events

Each event opens with a gentle introduction to how she connects, then moves to collective messages for the whole group and a sampling of personal messages for individual guests. A smaller room means more personal messages, and a larger room means more collective ones. Three lengths are available. The 90-minute event is the best value.
